The Speakers

Ronald Mendoza

Dr. Ronald U. Mendoza joined the Asian Institute of Management in January 2011, as core faculty of the Center for Development Management (CDM). He concurrently serves as the Executive Director of the AIM

Policy Center.

Dr. Mendoza is a senior economist with research and policy experience in development policy, international economics and public finance. He has spent almost 10 years with the United Nations in New York working on international development policy issues, first as an economist with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and later as an economist with the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Dr. Mendoza obtained his BA in Economics from Ateneo de Manila University, his Masters in Public Administration and International Development from the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University and his MA and PhD in Economics from Fordham University.

Guillermo "Bill" Luz

Guillermo "Bill" M. Luz is the Chairperson for the Private Sector of the National Competitiveness Council (NCC). NCC was formed in October 2006 as a Public-Private Task Force on Philippine Competitiveness by virtue of Presidential Exec Order 571, to address the improvement of the country's competitiveness from the bottom third of competitiveness rankings to the top third by 2016.

Guillermo M. Luz is Executive Vice President of Ayala Foundation. Past affiliations include Executive Director of the Makati Business Club from 1987 to 2006, Managing Director of the Knowledge Institute (an affiliate of SGV & Co.) from 1999 to 2005 and Secretary-General of NAMFREL from 1992 to 2006.

Mr. Luz graduated from Ateneo de Manila University with a bachelor's degree in social sciences (sociology and political science). He was selected as one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men (TOYM) and an Aquino Fellow for Public Service in 1999. He was conferred the Chino Roces Freedom Award in 2002.

Elise del Rosario

Elise del Rosario is the Executive Director of the Operations Research Society of the Philippines (ORSP). She is the newsletter editor and immediate Past President of the International Federation of Operational Research Societies (IFORS), the umbrella organization comprising the national Operations Research societies with over 30,000 members worldwide. Elise del Rosario previously chaired the Developing Countries Committee of IFORS for nine years. As its head, she worked on several programs, which pushed the Developing Countries' agenda. She was also IFORS Vice President-at-large from 2001-2003.

Upon retirement from the San Miguel Corporation as Vice President in charge of Operations Research, Elise went into consulting – mostly pro-bono work with the Philippine government – through the ORSP Committee for Public Service. Currently, she is the CFO of her family's One Small Step Forward Foundation, dedicated to uplifting Philippine public elementary school education.

Elise obtained her BSc in Industrial Engineering from the University of the Philippines, and MSc in Industrial Engineering and Management from the Asian Institute of Technology in Thailand.
